

Sunday, February 8, 2009 at 3 PM
Zoellner Hall

Lehigh University
presents

EINSTEIN'S MOZART: TWO GENIUSES

Text by Kate Light Music by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

KATE LIGHT, POET AND NARRATOR

With the

SERAFIN STRING QUARTET

PART ONE: MOSTLY EINSTEIN (1879-1955)

Quartet in G Major, K. 387 (1782)

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

I. "The Friends That Could Not Be Lost"

Allegro vivace assai

II. An Age of Invention (EINSTEIN)

Menuetto: Allegro

III. Ether, Or...? (EINSTEIN)

Andante cantabile

IV. A Remarkable Year: 1905 (EINSTEIN)

Time and Tempo (EINSTEIN)

Molto allegro

INTERMISSION

PART TWO: EINSTEIN AND MOZART (1756-1791)

Quartet in E-Flat Major, K. 428 (1783)

W.A. Mozart

I. Traveling in Coach (MOZART)

Allegro non troppo

II. Music of The Spheres (PYTHAGORAS)

Andante con moto

III. "Ein Stein" ("A Stone" -- EINSTEIN)

Menuetto: Allegro

IV. Friends of The Past (MOZART)

Allegro vivace

Einstein's Mozart was commissioned by the Colorado Chamber Players to commemorate the close convergence of the centenary of Einstein's Miracle Year (1905-2005) and the 250th birthday of Mozart (1756-2006).